FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HAGATNA, GUAM – November 16, 2009 – Chief Judge Tydingco-Gatewood of the District Court of Guam is pleased to announce the appointment of Charles B. White as the Chief Deputy Clerk. As the second in command, Mr. White will report directly to the Clerk of Court, Ms. Jeanne G. Quinata, and will play a pivotal role in the management of the administrative and operational functions of the District Court of Guam.

Prior to his appointment, Mr. White served as the court's Information Systems Manager and for the last eighteen years worked with the District Court management in applying technology to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the court's business and service to its patrons.

Mr. White obtained his Bachelor of Science in Systems Science and Engineering from Washington University and his Master of Science in Computer Science from Missouri University of Science and Technology.

Mr. White's solid working knowledge of both technology and the operational details of a modern federal court, including his leadership in implementing the Bankruptcy, Civil and Criminal Case Management/Electronic Case Filing systems, will further the court's move toward an environment of browser-based online services.
