THE DISTRICT COURT OF GUAM

In re:

CARMELITA CANLAS JACKSON,

Debtor.

BANKRUPTCY CASE NO. 16-00106

DECISION AND ORDER
RE MOTION TO DISQUALIFY

Before the Court is Debtor’s Motion to Disqualify Chief Judge. See ECF No. 13. Therein, counsel Gary W.F. Gumataotao (“Gumataotao”), representing Debtor CARMELITA CANLAS JACKSON,¹ moves to disqualify me from the above-captioned matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 455(a). For the reasons discussed more fully herein, the motion is hereby DENIED.

I. DISCUSSION

Section 455(a) of Title 28 of the United States Code provides that “[a]ny justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the United States shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned.” The goal of this particular statute is to avoid even the appearance of partiality even though no actual partiality exists. Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 860 (1988). Using the “objective” standard articulated in

1 Liljeberg, the court must ask “whether a reasonable person with knowledge of all the facts would 2 conclude that the judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned.” United States v. Holland, 3 519 F.3d 909, 913 (9th Cir. 2008) (citation omitted).

4 The Ninth Circuit has laid out the general principles in Section 455(a):

5 Section 455(a) asks whether a reasonable person perceives a 6 significant risk that the judge will resolve the case on a basis other 7 than the merits. The reasonable person is not someone who is 8 hypersensitive or unduly suspicious, but rather is a well-informed, 9 thoughtful observer. The standard must not be so broadly construed 10 that it becomes, in effect, presumptive, so that recusal is mandated 11 upon the merest unsubstantiated suggestion of personal bias or 12 prejudice.

13 Holland, 519 F.3d at 913 (internal quotation marks and citations omitted) (emphasis 14 added).

15 Applying these principles to the present case, I must first examine the facts surrounding 16 the instant motion, because recusal under Section 455(a) is “necessarily fact-driven and may turn
17 on subtleties in the particular case.” Id. The analysis under this section requires “an independent 18 examination of the unique facts and circumstances of the particular claim at issue.” Id.

19 On December 14, 2016, Gumataotao filed the instant motion. ECF No. 13. On that same 20 day, Gumataotao filed a similar motion to disqualify myself in twenty-one other cases.² These 21 were filed a day after I issued my decision in Fernandez v. Guam Education Board et al., Civil 22 Case No. 16-00080 (ECF No. 27), wherein I denied a separate motion to disqualify filed on 23 December 9, 2016, by Gumataotao and his co-counsel. On the day that I issued my Fernandez 24 decision, on December 13, 2016, Gumataotao also filed a motion to disqualify me in three other cases: Heath v. Evans, Adversary Proceeding No. 16-00002 (ECF No. 32); In re Takano, Bankruptcy Case No. 15-00108 (ECF No. 97); and Clay v. Davis, Civil Case No. 16-00045 (ECF

² The twenty-two cases filed on December 14, 2016, are as follows: BK 16-00013, BK 16-00092, BK 16-00093, BK 16-00103, BK 16-00104, BK 16-00105, BK 16-00106, BK 16-00107, BK 16-00108, BK 16-00109, BK 16-00110, BK 16-00111, BK 16-00112, BK 16-00114, BK 16-00125, BK 16-00126, BK 16-00135, BK 16-00136, BK 16-00140, BK 16-00141, BK 16-00150, and BK 13-00097 (this case is closed and there is a pending motion to reopen).

1 No. 28).

2 The basis for disqualification in all of these cases is that my “impartiality might 3 reasonably be questioned” because Gumataotao is counsel for Plaintiff William C. Bischoff, who 4 is suing my brother Phillip J. Tydingco, in Bischoff v. Rapadas, Weisenberger, and Tydingco, 5 Superior Court of Guam CV01179-14 (hereinafter “Bischoff”). In that case, the plaintiff is 6 seeking over half a million in monetary damages from the defendants. Gumataotao’s entry of 7 appearance in Bischoff was made on December 6, 2016.

8 In the decision I issued in Fernandez, I questioned Gumataotao’s reasons for my 9 disqualification as suspect. Gumataotao is counsel for debtors in thirty bankruptcy cases,³ one 10 adversary proceeding,⁴ and two civil cases,⁵ which are all currently pending before me. Yet, 11 Gumataotao has failed to file motions for disqualification in all of these proceedings. As noted 12 above, he initially filed only three other motions for disqualification (aside from the Fernandez 13 motion) out of the thirty-three cases he has before me. In addition, Gumataotao appeared before 14 me on December 9, 2016, three days after his entry of appearance in Bischoff, in two bankruptcy 15 matters⁶ and yet, Gumataotao did not question my presiding over those two hearings. Certainly, 16 if Gumataotao genuinely believed that an appearance of partiality exists on my part, because he 17 is counsel to the plaintiff who is suing my brother, he would have asked that I be disqualified in 18 all the cases he has before me. But he did not do that. Instead, he only asked that I be disqualified

21 00013, 16-00077, 16-00092, 16-00093, 16-00103, 16-00104, 16-00105, 16-00106, 16-00107, 16-00108, 16-00109, reaffirmation agreement with First Hawaiian Bank in Bankruptcy Case No. 16-00110.

1 in four cases.

2 To cherry-pick cases that he wants me to be disqualified from, I viewed this as judge-3 shopping, which is clearly against the mandate of Section 455's legislative history and puts into 4 question the integrity of the court system if I were to grant it. "Litigants are entitled to an 5 unbiased judge; not to a judge of their choosing." In re Drexel Burnham Lambert, Inc., 861 F.2d 6 1307, 1312 (2d Cir. 1988), cert. denied sub nom. Milken v. S.E.C., 490 U.S. 1102 (1989).

7 A day after I issued my decision in Fernandez, in his attempt to cure the hole in his 8 argument and to discredit my reasoning for the denial, Gumataotao filed this instant motion and 9 additional twenty-one motions for disqualification on December 14, 2016. Despite these 10 additional filings, I continue to find Gumataotao's motion to disqualify as suspect, given the 11 timing of when these motions were filed.

12 Moreover, the U.S. Supreme Court explained that:

13 ... § 455(a) expands the protection of § 455(b), but duplicates 14 some of its protection as well—not only with regard to bias and 15 prejudice but also with regard to interest and relationship. Within 16 the area of overlap, it is unreasonable to interpret § 455(a) (unless 17 the language requires it) as implicitly eliminating a limitation 18 explicitly set forth in §455(b). It would obviously be wrong, for 19 example, to hold that "impartiality could reasonably be 20 questioned" simply because one of the parties is in the fourth 21 degree of relationship to the judge." Section 455(b)(5), which 22 addresses the matter of relationship specifically, ends the disability 23 at the third degree of relationship, and that should obviously 24 govern for purposes of §455(a) as well. Similarly, §455(b)(1), which addresses the matter of personal bias and prejudice specifically, contains the "extrajudicial source" limitation—and that limitation (since nothing in the text contradicts it) should govern for purposes of §455(a) as well.

Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 552-53 (1994). The requirement that a judge recuse herself because of a relationship in a proceeding is specifically governed under Section 455(b)(5). That section requires that a judge disqualify herself if she or a person within third degree of relationship is "a party to the proceeding . . . is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding . . . is known

1 by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the 2 proceeding . . . is to the judge’s knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.” 28
3 U.S.C. §455(b)(5). Although my brother falls within the third degree of relationship, he is not a 4 party to this proceeding. Gumataotao points to no facts that would allow a reasonable person to 5 conclude that my brother is a party to this litigation or has an interest in a party to this litigation.
6 I also note that Gumataotao himself is not a party to the Bischoff litigation but rather, he is 7 merely counsel to the plaintiff.

8 II. CONCLUSION

9 After having thoroughly reviewed the facts particular to this case and the facts
10 surrounding the motions to disqualify in the other cases, there is an absence of a legitimate 11 reason for me to disqualify myself from this case. A reasonable person with knowledge of all the 12 facts would not find that my impartiality might reasonably be questioned. Accordingly, based on 13 the foregoing, the motion to disqualify is hereby DENIED.
