MR. JOHN P. CAMACHO

Director, Guam Department of Revenue & Taxation

Mr. John P. Camacho was appointed by Governor Eddie Baza Calvo as the Director of the Guam Department of Revenue and Taxation from 2011 to present. Mr. Camacho served as Commissioner for Guam's Office of Banking and Insurance from 2008 to 2010. He was the Deputy Director for the Department of Revenue and Taxation from 2003 to 2008, overseeing the Divisions of Insurance, Securities, and Banking, General Licensing, Compliance, Weights and Measure, and Motor Vehicle. Prior to being Deputy Director, Mr. Camacho had extensive experience in the field of taxation. He served as the Deputy Tax Commissioner for the Department of Revenue and Taxation from 2000 to 2003. Mr. Camacho managed many of the tax programs in the areas of tax enforcement, tax service, and appeals.

Mr. Camacho received a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and Management from the University of Guam.

MR. VINCENT C. CAMACHO, ESQ.
Carlsmith Ball LLP

Mr. Vincent C. Camacho is a partner with the law firm Carlsmith Ball LLP. His practice includes a range of matters including administrative law, business formation, corporate law, consumer and commercial banking, estate planning, government procurement, land use, and probate. In addition to his law degree, Mr. Camacho has a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy and a Master's degree in Business Administration.

Mr. Camacho assists clients in navigating through the government administrative processes to obtain licenses and permits required in Guam. He has advocated for clients in administrative hearings before the Guam Contractor's Licensing Board, the Guam Board of Professional Engineers, Architects and Land Surveyors (PEALS), and the Guam Public Utilities Commission.

Mr. Camacho consults and guides clients in business formation, preparation of business documents (e.g., articles of incorporation, bylaws, partnership agreements, and operating agreements), and walks clients through the sometimes complicated governmental processes to obtain required licenses to conduct business in Guam. He also consults and guides clients through the process of dissolving their business entities.

Mr. Camacho consults and provides advice to banking and other financial institutions relative to Guam's Uniform Consumer Credit Code. He represents banking and other financing institutions in matters relating to bankruptcy filings.

Mr. Camacho consults and advises clients in preparing estate plans ranging from the simple will to more complex trusts with multiple sub-trusts. He recently represented and advised trustees ad litem in litigation relative to a charitable trust.

Mr. Camacho consults and advises a number of clients in navigating the government procurement process. He has successfully represented government contractors at all levels of the protest process (i.e., agency protests, appeals before the Office of Public Accountability, and in the Superior Court of Guam). He also represents and advises a Guam government agency against aggrieved contractors.

Mr. Camacho consults trustees and fiduciaries in connection with the administration of employee pension and retirement plans.

Prior to practicing law, Mr. Camacho worked at Deloitte in various capacities. At Deloitte, he gained extensive experience in all areas of public accounting such as audit, tax, and management consulting, and notably, in the development of retirement plans for clients. The vast skills and experience he gained afforded him the opportunity to manage the operations of a national financial services provider for the subsequent ten years.
