

Chief Judge Frances Tydingco-Gatewood, District Court of Guam; Chief Justice F. Philip Carbullido, Judiciary of Guam; and Attorney Jacqueline T. Terlaje, President, Guam Bar Association announce the

2021

Law Month

Vegetable Planting Contest

PLUM TOMATOES

Calling all

FUTURE FARMERS!

Secure the Blessings of Liberty by Planting!
Thank you to Department of Agriculture for donating
400 seedlings for this event!

Seedlings will be available for pickup at no cost at:

Agana Heights Mayor's Office

March 06, 2021

9:00AM-12:00PM

Open to all elementary, middle, and high school students.

Rules:

- Participants are automatically registered upon uploading a photo and/or video of their plum tomato seeding on the District Court of Guam's Facebook page or on Instagram with the hashtag "GuamFutureFarmers2021" on Saturday, March 06, 2021, along with the information requested below.
- Permission from parents/guardians must be obtained in coordination with the District Court of Guam
- Participants must report on the progress of their plant on the dates outlined below and must include an updated photo and/or video of their plant each time.
- Upon reporting the progress of their plant, please be sure to indicate if the plant is flowering/sprouting any tomatoes—share how many you spot each time you report the progress.
- This contest encourages the support of family, so families are welcome to assist.

Saturday, March 06, 2021

Plant your seedling! Take a photo or video planting your seed. Upload photo/video to District Court of Guam's Facebook page or Instagram with the hashtag #GuamFutureFarmers2021. Enter your name; your age; your school; and your grade level.

Saturday March 13, 2021

Take an updated photo or video of your seed/plant at 1 week old to show the growth progress and upload the photo or video onto the District Court of Guam's Facebook page or Instagram with the hashtag #GuamFutureFarmers2021.

Saturday March 20, 2021

Take an updated photo or video of your seed/plant at 2 weeks old to show the growth progress and upload the photo or video onto the District Court of Guam's Facebook page Or Instagram with the hashtag #GuamFutureFarmers2021.

Saturday, April 03, 2021

Take an updated photo or video of your seed/plant at 1 month old to show the growth progress and upload the photo or video onto the District Court of Guam's Facebook page or Instagram with the hashtag #GuamFutureFarmers2021.

Saturday, May 01, 2021

Take an updated photo or video of your seed/plant at 2 months old to show the growth progress and upload the photo or video onto the District Court of Guam's Facebook page or Instagram with the hashtag #GuamFutureFarmers2021.

Announcement of Winners

Thursday, May 06, 2021

1. HEALTHIEST PLANT - BEST OVERALL

(Best kept plant; best showmanship; best overall.)

Elementary School Winner

Middle School Winner

High School Winner

2. THE CONTENDER

(Struggled to survive but overcame the struggles and now thriving.)

Elementary School Winner

Middle School Winner

High School Winner

3. HARVEST CHAMP

(The plant that sprouted/produced the most harvest)

Elementary School Winner

Middle School Winner

High School Winner

PRIZES:

Gift Card Prizes

Gift Certificates

Other Surprise Prizes

For more information or any questions contact District Court of Guam Staff: Cynthia Sablan at (671) 486-4800 or Haley Gibbons at (671) 864-7327