

iCivics COVID19 Educational Challenge
WINNERS

HIGH SCHOOL

High School First Place - $200:

Patrick Lagman, Notre Dame High School 12th Grade

First iCivics participant on Guam to score this much points!

1,036,750 points earned (11452 minutes of educational gaming)

High School Second Place - $100:

Samarah Paulino, Guam High School, 10th grade

This is Samarah's second time to win one of our iCivics challenges; she was a student in our Civics Camp last Summer where she also placed second. Samarah was the 2019 Civics Camp Salutatorian.

111,794 points earned (864 minutes of educational gaming)

High School Third Place - $50:

Sylvina Bell, John F. Kennedy, 12th Grade

107,447 points earned (1329 minutes of educational gaming)

MIDDLE SCHOOL

Middle School First Place - $200:

Chloe Vidallon, Mount Carmel Catholic School, 8th Grade

183,984 points earned (1415 minutes of educational gaming)

Middle School Second Place - $100:

Cara Alexa Vidallon, SIFA Learning Academy Charter School, 6th Grade

Cara is the younger sister to Chloe, our middle school first place winner.

179,296 points earned (1425 minutes of educational gaming)

Middle School Third Place - $50:

Aliseana Mateo, Andersen Middle School, 7th Grade

104,110 points earned (1098 minutes of educational gaming)

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL HONORABLE MENTION - $25

Titus Hennegan, Inarajan Elementary School

Titus participates in all our court's educational outreach programs.

WINNING SCHOOL WITH MOST PARTICIPATION

TEACHER/SCHOOL WITH MOST STUDENT PARTICIPATION – Class Party (next school year)

Ms. Tia Flores

Academy of Our Lady of Guam

25 students registered from Ms. Tia Flores' class