DISTRICT COURT OF GUAM NATURALIZATION CEREMONY Court Celebrates Veterans Day

The District Court of Guam proudly hosted a special Veterans Day Naturalization Ceremony on November 8, 2019.

At this momentous event, the Court welcomed 45 new citizens who hail from the Philippines, Russia, South Korea, Thailand, Federated State of Micronesia and Vietnam. One of the 45 new U.S. Citizens is a military enlistee with the Guam Army National Guard, Specialist Ryan Jimmy from Pohnpei.

Citizenship is one of the most coveted gifts that the United States government can bestow. "We are grateful for the sacrifices our Veterans have made for our freedom and we extend our most heartfelt congratulations to the new citizens of our great nation", remarked Chief Judge Frances Tydingco-Gatewood.
