In Re: Application for Exemption from the Electronic Public Access Fees by Alexander Zentefis

GENERAL ORDER NO. 23-0018
JEANNE G. QUINATA
CLERK OF COURT

This matter is before the Court upon the application and request by Alexander Zentefis for exemption from the fees imposed by the Electronic Public Access fee schedule adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts.

The Court finds that Alexander Zentefis, as an individual researcher associated with Yale University, falls within the class of users listed in the fee schedule as being eligible for a fee exemption. Additionally, Alexander Zentefis has demonstrated that an exemption is necessary in order to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to information. Accordingly, Alexander Zentefis shall be exempt from the payment of fees for access via PACER to the electronic case files maintained in this court, to the extent such use is incurred in the course of his research project studying the linguistic patterns in federal criminal sentencing. He shall not be exempt from the payment of fees incurred in connection with other uses of the PACER system in this court. Additionally, the following limitations apply:

1. this fee exemption applies only to Alexander Zentefis and is valid only for the purposes stated above;
2. this fee exemption applies only to the electronic case files of this court that are available through the PACER system;
3. by accepting this exemption, Alexander Zentefis agrees not to sell for profit any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption;
4. Alexander Zentefis is prohibited from transferring any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption, including redistribution via internet based databases;
5. this exemption is valid until 12 months from the date of this Order.

This exemption may be revoked at the discretion of the Court at any time. A copy of this Order shall be sent to the PACER Service Center.

SO ORDERED this 13th day of September, 2023.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 23-0019

JEANNE G. QUINATA
CLERK OF COURT

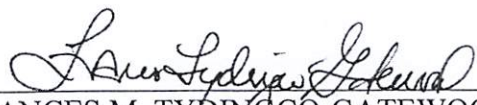

This matter is before the Court upon the application and request by Yvonne (Yanzi) Han for exemption from the fees imposed by the Electronic Public Access fee schedule adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts.

The Court finds that Yvonne (Yanzi) Han, a PhD student affiliated with the University of Chicago Booth School of Business, falls within the class of users listed in the fee schedule as being eligible for a fee exemption. Additionally, Yvonne (Yanzi) Han has demonstrated that an exemption is necessary in order to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to information. Accordingly, Yvonne (Yanzi) Han shall be exempt from the payment of fees for access via PACER to the electronic case files maintained in this court, to the extent such use is incurred in the course of her research into information's role in corporate bankruptcy cases. Yvonne (Yanzi) Han shall not be exempt from the payment of fees incurred in connection with other uses of the PACER system in this court. Additionally, the following limitations apply:

1. this fee exemption applies only to Yvonne (Yanzi) Han and is valid only for the purposes stated above;
2. this fee exemption applies only to the bankruptcy electronic case files of this court that are available through the PACER system;
3. by accepting this exemption, Yvonne (Yanzi) Han agrees not to sell for profit any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption;
4. Yvonne (Yanzi) Han is prohibited from transferring any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption, including redistribution via internet based databases;
5. this exemption is valid until June 30, 2025.

This exemption may be revoked at the discretion of the Court at any time. A copy of this Order shall be sent to the PACER Service Center.
